

Can you correctly punctuate this direct speech?

a

Do you think they saw us, Charlie?

Can you think of a word that ends in either -sure or -ture that matches the definition?

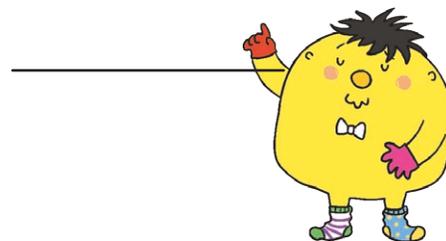

b

gold that you might find hidden in a chest

Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up a determiner. Can you help him to unjumble it?

c

lla

Fill the spaces with the correct word in brackets:

d

The cut on David's finger _____ heavily. (bleed/ bled)

Mum _____ George for accidentally smashing her vase. (forgive/forgave)

Which word fits in the sentence?

e

whose or who's

Tom, _____ arch enemy was called Jerry, enjoyed chasing mice.

Up-level this sentence about the tin by adding an adjective and an extra subordinate clause.

f

The tin was full of objects.

Year 4 Spring Term 1 SPaG Mat 6 Answers

6

Can you correctly punctuate this direct speech?

a

"Do you think they saw us, Charlie?"

Can you think of a word that ends in either -sure or -ture that matches the definition?

b

gold that you might find hidden in a chest

treasure

Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up a determiner. Can you help him to unjumble it?

c

lla

all

Fill the spaces with the correct word in brackets:

d

The cut on David's finger bled heavily. (bleed/ bled)

Mum forgave George for accidentally smashing her vase. (forgive/forgave)

Which word fits in the sentence?

e

whose or who's

Tom, whose arch enemy was called Jerry, enjoyed chasing mice.

Up-level this sentence about the tin by adding an adjective and an extra subordinate clause.

f

The tin was full of objects.

Accept an up-levelled sentence with an added adjective and subordinate clause, e.g. When he opened it, he found that the tin was full of unusual objects.

Year 4 Spring Term 1 SPaG Mat 6

6

a
Can you write the Anders's words as an accurately-punctuated direct speech?

Do you think they saw us, Charlie?

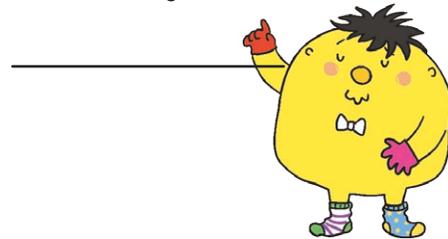

b
Can you think of the words that end in either -sure or -ture that match these definitions?

gold that you might find hidden in a chest t_____

items inside your home f_____

c
Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up TWO determiners. Can you help him to unjumble them?

lla efw

d
Fill the spaces with the correct word in brackets:

The cut on David's finger _____ heavily. (bleed/ bled)

Mum _____ George for accidentally smashing her vase. (forgive/forgave)

The frightened children _____ in fear. (froze/ froze)

e
Which word fits in the sentence?

whose or who's

Tom, _____ arch enemy was called Jerry, enjoyed chasing mice.

"_____ been eating my porridge?" asked Daddy Bear angrily.

f
Up-level this sentence about the tin by adding an adjective, an adverb and a subordinate clause.

The tin was full of objects.

Year 4 Spring Term 1 SPaG Mat 6 Answers

6

a
Can you write the Anders's words as an accurately-punctuated direct speech?

Do you think they saw us, Charlie?

Accept accurate speech punctuation, e.g. "Do you think they saw us, Charlie?" asked Anders as they hid in the pantry.

b
Can you think of the words that end in either -sure or -ture that match these definitions?

gold that you might find hidden in a chest treasure

items inside your home furniture

c
Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up TWO determiners. Can you help him to unjumble them?

lla efw

all few

d
Fill the spaces with the correct word in brackets:

The cut on David's finger bled heavily. (bleed/ bled)

Mum forgave George for accidentally smashing her vase. (forgive/forgave)

The frightened children froze in fear. (froze/ freezed)

e
Which word fits in the sentence?

whose or who's

Tom, whose arch enemy was called Jerry, enjoyed chasing mice.

"Who's been eating my porridge?" asked Daddy Bear angrily.

f
Up-level this sentence about the tin by adding an adjective, an adverb and a subordinate clause.

The tin was full of objects.

Accept an up-levelled sentence with an added adjective, adverb and subordinate clause, e.g. As he opened it anxiously, he noticed that the tin was full of unusual objects.

a
Can you write the Anders's words as an accurately-punctuated direct speech?

Do you think they saw us,
Charlie?

Now, can you correctly punctuate Charlie's reply?

b
Can you think of the words that end in either -sure or -ture that match these definitions?

gold that you might find hidden in a chest t_____

items inside your home f_____

a pen that holds animals e_____

c
Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up THREE determiners. Can you help him to unjumble them?

lla efw ahce

d
Fill the spaces with the correct word in brackets:

The cut on David's finger _____ heavily. (bleed/ bled)

Mum _____ George for accidentally smashing her vase.
(forgive/forgave)

The frightened children
_____ in fear. (froze/ froze)

After drinking the potion, the wizard
_____. (shrunk/shrank)

e
Which word fits in the sentence?

whose or who's

Tom, _____ arch enemy was called Jerry, enjoyed chasing mice.

"_____ been eating my porridge?" asked Daddy Bear angrily.

Write another sentence using the word who's.

f
Up-level this sentence.

The tin was full of objects.

Year 4 Spring Term 1 SPaG Mat 6 Answers

6

a
Can you write the Anders's words as an accurately-punctuated direct speech?

Accept accurate speech punctuation, e.g. "Do you think they saw us, Charlie?" asked Anders as they hid in the pantry.

Accept any sentence with accurate speech punctuation, e.g. "I'm not sure," replied Charlie nervously.

b
Can you think of the words that end in either -sure or -ture that match these definitions?

gold that you might find hidden in a chest treasure

items inside your home furniture

a pen that holds animals enclosure

c
Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up THREE determiners. Can you help him to unjumble them?

lla efw ahce

all few each

d
Fill the spaces with the correct word in brackets:

The cut on David's finger bled heavily. (bleed/ bled)

Mum forgave George for accidentally smashing her vase. (forgive/forgave)

The frightened children froze in fear. (froze/ freezed)
After drinking the potion, the wizard shrank. (shrunk/shrank)

e
Which word fits in the sentence?

whose or who's

Tom, whose arch enemy was called Jerry, enjoyed chasing mice.

"Who's been eating my porridge?" asked Daddy Bear angrily.

Accept any sentence that uses who's correctly, e.g. "Who's coming out to play?" asked Ben.

f
Up-level this sentence.

The tin was full of objects.

Accept an up-levelled sentence with a more ambitious vocabulary and a more complex sentence structure, e.g. As he opened it with shaking hands, he found that the tin was full of unusual, dusty objects.